Route description:

- With your back to the main entrance of the hotel you go to the right, take the bicycle path (Cronasstig). At its end you go to the left, at this path's end you turn to the right, an asphalt road.
- After the bridge (built in 1922) over the river Uvån you take the first path to the right, which gives entrance to the grounds of Uddeholms Herrgård. Afterwards you go immediately to the right again, downhill.
- Take the first path to the left. At the bifurcation you go straight on, along the water.
- Take the first path diagonally to the right, downwards. You walk underneath the white mansion of the estate.

Uddeholms Herrgård

- Keep walking straight on. The path runs along the Råda lake. It ends at a field of grass, which you cross along a big vase. At the flagstone path you turn to the right.

The church that nowadays is called ‘Uddeholms kapell’ was originally built in 1634 as the parish church of Norra Råda and used as such until 1752, when a new church was built. In 1778 the building was sold to Bengt Gustav Geijer of Uddeholm and transported over the frozen lake to Uddeholm, where it served as a granary. In 1959/1960 the building was restored with the original pine-wood to its historic state, to use it again for religious services. The belfry is also made of red wood. The chapel is maintained by volunteers in cooperation with the Norra Råda and Sunnemo parishes.

- At the end of the flagstone path you turn to the right. This asphalt road, called Strandvägen, changes into a semi-hardened road and leads along a row of typical Swedish houses.
- Take the second road to the left, at its end you turn to the left (Herleniusvägen). This semi-hardened road changes into a asphalt road.
- After the kindergarten at your right hands side you take the first road to the left. Immediately past the chapel you turn to the right.

- After passing the chapel you take the flagstone path diagonally to the right. At its end you turn to the left. This semi-hardened road leads to the mansion of the estate. At the bifurcation you keep to the right, near the house you turn to the right again.
- The road leads towards the exit of the estate. Here you turn to the left on the asphalt road and you cross the bridge.
- When the road curves to the right you go to the left, a semi-hardened path. After the path has curved to the left you go to the right. This pedestrian path leads to the hotel.
- Just before the main building of the hotel you turn to the left, crossing the field of grass. You descend the staircase towards the landing place. Here you turn to the right, along the Råda lake.
- At the picnic place you turn to the right, an asphalt road. Take the first path which turns sharply to the left. You walk along the pedestrian gate and across the field of grass.
- Turn to the right past the nicely painted changing building. At the semi-hardened road you turn to the right.

- Take the first road to the right. At the crossing you go straight on, a cycle-footpath, At its end you turn to the right, towards Uddeholms Hotell.
